 - The Respect for diverse opinions and the world around them
 - The Humility to reflect, adapt and forgive

Mission: A busy, unhurried childhood

In collaboration with the Shrewsbury School Family, the ethos of Packwood School is rooted in the belief that education should develop the whole child. We seek to create an environment in which pupils are inspired to be their best selves whilst remaining kind, humble and respectful.

Pupil-focused mission

Soaring Performance What we know	Adventure How we use what we know	Character How we engage with the world
Empowered through growth-mindedness, pupils seek out challenge and learn from feedback; through hard work they pursue excellence; and through commitment to mastery, they derive joy from their accomplishments.	Empowered through learned wisdom, pupils expand their agility; through empathy they nurture teamwork; and through collective imagination, they embrace the fun of learning.	Empowered through resourcefulness, pupils develop resilience in the face of setbacks; through bold authenticity they grow their independence; through the confidence to be their best selves, they share in a desire to make the world a better place.

Learning Attributes ('The Big Tree Attributes')

Educational Aims

In pursuit of its vision and ethos, Packwood School aims:

1. To provide an outstanding all-round education

To deliver a broad, balanced and ambitious curriculum that challenges, inspires and enables every pupil to fulfil their academic potential while developing a genuine love of learning. Through academic study, co-curricular opportunities, service, leadership and reflection, pupils develop spiritually, morally, socially and culturally, enabling them to become thoughtful, responsible and engaged members of society.

2. To cultivate soaring performance

To encourage pupils to embrace challenge, demonstrate a growth mindset, learn from feedback and pursue excellence through effort, resilience and mastery.

3. To nurture character

To develop confident, authentic and resourceful young people who show courage, integrity, resilience and independence, and who aspire to make a positive difference in the world.

4. To inspire adventure

To provide rich opportunities for exploration, imagination, teamwork and outdoor learning, helping pupils develop agility, curiosity and enjoyment in learning and life.

5. To promote wellbeing and belonging

To create a safe, supportive and inclusive environment in which every pupil is known, valued and respected and where positive relationships enable individuals to thrive.

6. To develop leadership and service

To encourage pupils to take responsibility, contribute positively to their communities and develop the confidence and skills needed to become thoughtful and effective leaders.

7. To provide exceptional opportunities beyond the classroom

To ensure that sport, music, drama, outdoor education, creative arts, clubs, leadership opportunities and community engagement form an integral part of every pupil's educational experience.

8. To prepare pupils for future success

To equip pupils with the knowledge, skills, competencies and personal attributes required to flourish at senior school, in higher education, in employment and throughout their lives.

9. To promote British values and global citizenship

To encourage respect for democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect while developing an understanding of global perspectives, cultures and responsibilities.

10. To sustain a thriving school community

To foster strong partnerships between pupils, parents, staff, governors, alumni and the wider community, ensuring that Packwood remains a distinctive and flourishing preparatory school.

Commitment

Packwood School is committed to providing an education that balances ambition with kindness, achievement with humility and tradition with innovation. Through The Packwood Way, we seek to ensure that every child experiences an education full of wonder and leaves the School as a confident, resilient and compassionate young person, ready to embrace the opportunities of the future.

The School actively promotes the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. These values are embedded throughout the curriculum, pastoral programme and wider life of the School.
