

Statement of Principles for Boarding

The Warren Boarding House is situated in the main house and accommodates girls and boys from Forms 3-8.

Boarding House Values:

Packwood boarders are courageous, kind and humble.

The Principles of boarding at Packwood:

- We live in a safe, friendly and respectful boarding community
- Safeguarding and wellbeing is at the heart of everything we do
- We always seek to help others and take responsibility for our actions
- We take every opportunity to develop our independence and practise our social skills and teamwork
- Fun is at the heart of what we do, and there are always a wide variety of activities available to us
- Our common rooms and dorms are cosy and homely
